

Chester Museum at The Mill

Chester Historical Society

In a typical year 2,500 people of all ages enjoy free-admission events including our award-winning Chester Museum at The Mill thanks to donations by individuals and the Essex Savings Bank Community Investment Program

Some recent free public programs

“Tales from the Kitchen” – six Chester restaurant owners

“Remembering the Flood of June 1982”

“Connecticut River Steamboats” – Erik Hesselberg

Some recent free YouTube presentations

Constance Baker Motley in Chester, 1995 – 2005 – Marta Daniels

Discovering the Early Days of Chester – Donald Perreault

Dams: Treasure or Trouble

Plus, Free admission to Chester Museum at The Mill (June – Oct)

- Two Floors of Exhibits
- 2022 Seasonal Exhibit: Where We Ate; Where We Eat
- Ongoing Exhibit: Streams of Change, two-time, award-winning exhibit tells the story of Chester’s evolution along the branches of the Pattaconk Brook.

We invite you to attend our events, visit our museum and enjoy our online videos.

THANK YOU for considering us for your vote this year