

Chester Museum at The Mill

Chester Historical Society

In a typical year 2,500 people of all ages enjoy free-admission events including our award-winning Chester Museum at The Mill

thanks to donations by individuals and the Essex Savings Bank Community Investment Program

Some recent free public programs

“The 1966 Relocation of the Pratt House”

“Remembering the 1983 Sewer Parade”

“It Happened to Jane”

Some recent free YouTube presentations

Treasures from the Collection – Donald Perreault

Dams: Treasure or Trouble – Panel of Experts

Constance Baker Motley in Chester, 1995 – 2005 – Marta Daniels

New Publication

The Streams, Mill Dams & Mills of Chester – Nathan Jacobson

Plus, Free admission to Chester Museum at The Mill (June – Oct)

- Two Floors of Exhibits
- NEW! Exhibit on 86-inch interactive touchscreen: The Pattaconk & Its Mills
- Ongoing Exhibit: Streams of Change, award-winning exhibit tells the story of Chester’s evolution along the branches of the Pattaconk Brook.

We invite you to attend our events, visit our museum and enjoy our online videos. All at no cost.

THANK YOU for considering us for your vote this year