

Old Lyme Land Trust

The Old Lyme Land Trust is a non-profit organization dedicated to conserving Old Lyme's natural, scenic and historic land and water resources for the benefit of the public now and for generations to come. The Trust accomplishes its purpose by acquiring land through donations and purchase, managing the land and by providing education to the public.

Old Lyme Land Trust

*Enjoy one of our many preserves.
Hike, kayak, bird watch, find the flora in the following pages...*

Boggy Hole Preserve	44 Acres	Jerhico Preserve	50 Acres
Belton Copp Preserve	4 Acres	Lay Allen Preserve	185 Acres
Goberis Chadwick Preserve	25.8 Acres	Lohmann, Buck, Twining Preserve	46 Acres
George & Woodward Griswold Preserve	51 Acres	John Lohman CT River Preserve	40 Acres
Hatchets Hill Preserve	44 Acres	Mile Creek Preserve	44 Acres
Bob & Esther Heller Preserve	15.8 Acres	Upper Three Mile River Preserve	157 Acres
Hoffman, Matthiessen, DeGerenday Preserve	40 Acres	Elizabeth B. Karter, Watch Rock Preserve	25.3 Acres

Trail maps and more info at oldlymelandtrust.org

Old Lyme Land Trust

FERN - BOULE - MOSS - ROCK

Old Lyme Land Trust

MUSHROOMS COME IN LOTS OF SHAPES

Old Lyme Land Trust

ROCKS & WALLS

Old Lyme Land Trust

SNOW & ICE

Old Lyme Land Trust

LOOK WHAT HAPPENS TO TREES

Old Lyme Land Trust

LOOK WHAT HAPPENS TO TREES

Old Lyme Land Trust

LICHEN AND LEAVES