

Con Brio is a local, classical, auditioned chorus of 70 singers, known for the variety of its repertoire, sparkling programming and excellent musicality.

Founded in Centerbrook in 1997, Con Brio is a 501(c)3, funded by members themselves, private donations, local advertisers, grants, and ticket sales.

Con Brio has established an enviable reputation and invariably performs to full houses. As well as four main concerts each year, Con Brio co-hosts the popular SummerSings season of informal summer read-throughs of well known choral works, open to all. Con Brio's next concerts are April 12 and 14, 2024.

Con Brio is grateful to Essex Savings Bank for its support as an advertiser and through its Community Investment Program, and encourages all account holders to vote for Con Brio.
